A Fine Pair of Shoes if You Do!

Yesterday this gentleman took our store by storm.

He had no name; we could give him none.

We appeal to the public for a name?

Send in the name you think best. The name

he accepts is worth money.

If a lady offers the best name we will give a fine pair of Lady's Shoes. If a gentleman suggests it, we will give a handsome pair of Gentle-

Send in you name at once. The contest will end Saturday, 14th of May. Three advertising men will decide the contest. It costs nothing to offer a name. All are allowed three suggestions.

He will talk to you daily about Sycle's Shoes.

Name him. Make it short.

TAFT SEES WEIRD GAME

St. Louis, Ma., May 4.—President Taft to-day witnessed the first two innings of one of the weirdest games yet seen on a local diamond. St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 12 to 3. The visitors used three pitchers, who issued sixteen bases on balls. Eight bases on balls were given by Siagle and Covaleski in the third inning, and these conbined with a hit bastman and single, netted St. Louis 7 runs. The President lost interest after five runs had come in in Louis 7 runs. The President lost in-terest after five runs had come in in the first inning, and his party departed main scored. Smith stole second. As mith drove the ball to deep left for three bases, and D. Smith scored. I ghean walked, Woolums put him down to second on an infield out, and Smith scored. Lucla fanned.

In her half of the first the Tars scored. Lucla fanned.

In her half of the first the Tars scored twice, thanks to Lloyd's wildness. Bonner got life on Behan's error. Busch died on a high the to Smith. Chandler walked, and while Mullaney fanned both men stole a base. Then Lloyd walked Murdock. Clark and Reggy in succession, forcing in two runs. Lloyd's single. Moffman's sacrifice and D. Smith's single counted in the second. In the seventh, Mullaney's single and Murdock's double counted for a tally. In the eighth a base on balls and two errors gave Lynchburg a run. The score:
